MEMORANDUM FOR: Executive Director-Comptroller

SUBJECT : Standard Oil Company of New Jersey,
Request for Briefing

1. The attached memorandum from the Director of Security to you contains a recommendation for your approval in which I concur. This memorandum contains some additional background information.

2. In May of 1965, Mr. Warfield attended the Conference for Federal Executives on Business Operations sponsored by the Brookings Institution. One day was devoted to various presentations by the management of Standard Oil Company (New Jersey). Mr. A. L. Russell, Security Administrator of the company, gave a vigorous presentation on "Business-Government Teamwork in Meeting Overseas Security Problems." It was Mr. Warfield's impression that Mr. Russell, while certainly enthusiastic and no doubt ambitious, was reflecting company policy in his appeals for business representation on the country team, especially in those countries where S.O. (N.J.) is involved. Other S.O. speakers were:

Mr. J. K. Jamieson, President
Mr. David A. Shepard, Executive Vice President
Mr. Cecil L. Burrill, Director
Mr. Emilio G. Collado, Vice President
Mr. Edward J. Gornowski, Deputy Manager, Coordination and Planning
Mr. J. O. Larsen, Secretary
Mr. Luke W. Finlay, Manager, Government Relations

In this environment, Mr. Russell's remarks surely represented a prepared company position. This position briefly stated is:
